Join us for a panel conversation featuring, an artist (Naomi Kuo), a curator (Sarah Margolis-Pineo) and an archivist (Natalie Milbrodt) as we explore the power of partnership to spur fresh iterations of successful practices. They will share the origins and process of a collaborative textile installation created to facilitate self-expression and community building through sharing stories of migration.

This program is presented in conjunction with the exhibition MIGRATIONS: A Study of Arts and Identity and with support in part by the Institute of Museum and Library Services and the Museum Association of New York. Program is FREE and registration is required. Please email gtmuseum@qc.cuny.edu to register and receive instructions on how to join us online.
